

FIG 13-8 Removal of split-thickness skin graft with a dermatome.

Sheet graft.

A sheet of skin removed from the donor site is placed intact over the recipient site and sutured in place; this is used in areas where cosmetic results are most visible, for example, the face (Fig. 13-9).

FIG 13-9 Sheet graft.

Mesh graft.